Local fans of loud, outrageous roots rock became well acquainted with a charismatic Cleveland band called the Cowslingers, who built a loyal following from some legendary performances at Americanarama and a steady number of return visits to support various vinyl and CD releases. From the ashes of that band rose The Whiskey Daredevils, comprised of Cowslingers Leo P. Love on drums, Ken Miller on bass, and Greg Miller on vocals, and joined by guitarists David Bowling (Hayshaker Jones) and Bobby Lanphier (Crooked Mile). While the new band maintains the demented evangelist delivery that Greg Miller is famous for, the overall sound is far from the barnyard camp cultivated by the 'Slingers—moving instead into the realm of hi-octane, tube-top shakin' rock. As Miller says "Speed and volume have always been our friends." The Whiskey Daredevils will explode on the Mohawk Place stage after 11pm on Friday (Aug. 25), on a bill with Wolf Tickets. —buck quigley

On Friday (Aug. 25), at 9pm, Nimbus Dance Co. and the music collective Temporary Dream will present an encore performance of the hugely well-received Infringement Festival show, Temporary Dream. Dancer/choreographer Kerry Ring will join the cast this time, along with original dancers Beth Elkins, Theresa Baker (pictured), and Aaron Piepszny. The multi-media work features live soundscapes by David Gracon, Greg Genco, and Jeff Fose, video by Brian Milbrand, and Pilates-inspired choreography by Nimbus director Beth Elkins. The set was designed by architect Brad Wales in the space he and Elkins share, at Gallery 164 (164 Allen). This will also be the last performance of Temporary Dream the band, as founding member David Gracon plans to head west to Oregon in early September.—k. o'day

It's been a good year for Buffalo-based emo rock acts. First, Cute Is What We Aim For issued their debut, The Same Old Blood Rush With A New Touch (Fueled By Ramen) to a rousing success. Now we've got This Day And Age who this week have issued their latest on a big label, The Bell & The Hammer (One Eleven/East West Records). The Bell & The Hammer is a taut emo-punk affair that shows the growth of a band that's now into their fifth year together. This Day and Age celebrates the new album with an all ages extravaganza this Saturday (Aug. 26) at Club Infinity. The CD Release Party includes special guests Damiera, SpeakerFire and Elektromat. Doors open at 6pm. —donny kutzbach

NEW MUSIC NIGHT
2-4-1 DRINKS

882.4000

Two dozen performers from Pick of the Crop Dance, costumed by local designer Michele Costa (of Petites Choses/Small Things puppetry), will take the stage at the Herschell Carrousel Factory Museum in celebration of that grand romantic contraption, the carousel. Choreography by POC's artistic director Elaine Gardner and a soundtrack composed by music director Curt Steinzor combine in a dramatic yet whimsical presentation designed to conceptualize the qualities of these iconic, historical structures —of which the Herschell Museum's 1916 model is a nationally renowned specimen. This is a one-day only performance, on Sunday (Aug. 27), at 2pm. The project is part of a special "Sites Re-Seen" grant given by the Museum Program of the NY State Council on the Arts. —k. o'day
